

Member Rules and Policies

Welcome to the SubProto Hackerspace. Please find below the rules and policies governing usage of the space and the terms of your membership. It is the intention that these rules be kept short and straightforward and be interpreted with common sense. Access to the Hackerspace, its resources, members and events is conditional upon accepting the following rules in full and having your fees paid in full.

You Agree That:

Liability

- Each member is liable for their actions to the fullest extent allowable under common law.

Respect, Courtesy and Culture.

- Be excellent to one another.
- All Hackers are created equal.
- Respect other members and their property.
- Give back to the space.
- No smoking in the space.

Safety, Equipment and Materials.

- Always consider the safety of yourself and others.
- Members are encouraged to question safety openly, without animosity or fear of reprisal.
- If safety concerns are raised by another member, you must halt your activity and agree upon reasonable safety measures before continuing.
- All hazards and unsafe activity must be reported immediately to the Owners to tag or label as appropriate.
- Always use suitable personal protective gear.
- Treat all tools and work areas with respect.
- Seek instruction before using any unfamiliar equipment.
- Ensure tools and areas are left in a clean and serviceable condition upon your departure.
- Report lost or broken tools immediately to the Owners to tag or label as appropriate.
- Replace consumables when used, where possible.
- Always report a consumable that is exhausted.

Other Hard, Fast and Very Serious Rules.

The owners have the right to have you removed from the premises, revoke your membership without refund and refer serious matters to the police or relevant authority.

- No unlawful activity.
- No intoxication or recreational drugs.
- No stealing.
- No violence.
- No harassment of any description.
- No vandalism.
- Minors under the age of 13 must be accompanied by a responsible adult/legal guardian at all times.
- No bringing the organisation into disrepute.
